

Morris Wermuth

Attached is an image of my father in law, Mr. Morris Wermuth. He is from Cracow, Poland, survived 8 camps including Auschwitz.

He passed away about three years ago.

He always told me that when they tattooed the number on his forearm, it gave him the strength and will to survive — the number included "18" and "19", which equal the numeric value of Chai and Tov (good).

